

MEDIA CONTACT

Alesia Brooks

404-371-7031

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 4, 2019

Commissioner Steve Bradshaw to Host Second Annual Veterans Resource Expo on Sept. 14

DECATUR, Ga. — DeKalb County District 4 Commissioner Steve Bradshaw will host the Second Annual Veterans Resource Expo event from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., on Saturday, Sept. 14, at Central DeKalb Senior Center, Mason Mill Park, 1346 McConnell Drive Decatur, GA 30033.

Commissioner Bradshaw, in collaboration with Atlanta VA HealthCare System, AMVETS Post 44, Disabled American Veterans Chapter 91 and Georgia Grace will provide onsite resources and information about housing, VA benefits, caregiver and legal services, employment and training, mental health, telehealth and women's wellness programs.

AMVET Post 44 and DAV-Chapter 91 will serve hot dogs and hamburgers. Children are welcome to attend with family members.

"I am pleased to host the Second Annual Veterans Resource Expo, an event designed to connect DeKalb veterans with essential resources," said Commissioner Bradshaw. "Last year, the expo served more than 80 veterans and we are hoping to surpass that number this year. This event is something that is very close to my heart."

Commissioner Bradshaw, upon graduating from Armstrong State University, entered military service as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army, and formally trained as a tank commander. He spent tours of duty in Germany, Fort Knox, Ky., Fort Benning, Ga., Saudi Arabia and Iraq during the First Gulf War. His final assignment was as a Leadership Instructor at the US Army Officer Candidate School. Commissioner Bradshaw left active military service at the rank of captain in 1993.

For more information, contact Alesia Brooks at 404-371-7031 or adbrooms@dekalbcountyga.gov.

###