Commissioner Steve Bradshaw to Hold Community Meeting on New Stone Mountain Senior Center

DECATUR, Ga.—Commissioner Steve Bradshaw will host a community meeting on the proposed District 4 senior center on Monday, Feb. 24, 2020, at Antioch AME Church, located at 765 S. Hairston Road, Stone Mountain, Ga., from 6 to 8 p.m.

The public is encouraged to attend and receive an update on the proposed design and center programming services for constituents.

“Since the first community meeting that was held last June, we have made a lot of progress towards this new state-of-the-art District 4 senior community multicenter,” Commissioner Bradshaw said. “The center will have the added amenity of a saltwater swimming pool. I look forward to sharing the proposed design and programming amenities with my constituents’ and hearing from them on the center design and programming.”

The senior center will be located on a 2.7-acre, county-owned parcel at 4875 Elam Road, Stone Mountain. Wood Inc., the architect of record, will be present to discuss the design, receive feedback and answer questions.
