DeKalb Commissioner Steve Bradshaw to Host Community Breakfast Meeting

DECATUR, Ga.— DeKalb County Commissioner Steve Bradshaw will begin his fourth year of Quarterly in the Fourth Community Breakfast meetings that will be held virtually for the foreseeable future.

“I have missed having in-person community meetings with constituents and I hope that at some point this year we will be able to resume these meetings at community-based locations,” Commissioner Bradshaw said.

Commissioner Bradshaw will host his first 2021 Quarterly in the Fourth Community Breakfast meeting on Saturday, Jan. 23, via Zoom.

The focus of these community meetings is to provide residents with information and resources and to address the concerns of constituents. Department representatives also will be available to respond to questions and special guest speakers will provide an update and demonstration on new voting machines.

“In spite of the COVID-19 pandemic and the challenges many of us have and are dealing with as a result, I am pleased with the outcomes of the 2020 Quarterly in the Fourth Community Breakfast meetings,” Commissioner Bradshaw said. “Meeting with my constituents has provided me with an opportunity to hear their thoughts, concerns and ideas on how we can keep DeKalb County moving forward together.”
