DECATUR, Ga.—DeKalb County District 4 Commissioner Steve Bradshaw will host his last Quarterly in the Fourth community breakfast meeting for 2019 on Saturday, Oct. 26, from 9 to 11 a.m. at Champion Theme Middle School, located at 5265 Mimosa Drive, Stone Mountain.

DeKalb County department representatives will be available to respond to questions and special guest speakers will provide an update on DeKalb County's Census 2020 project.

The focus of these community meetings is to provide residents with information and resources and to address the concerns of constituents.

“I have designed the upcoming meeting at Champion Theme Middle School to include an update from the Census 2020 management team on the status,” Commissioner Bradshaw said. “Q4 Breakfast Meetings provide an opportunity to partner with constituents on the progress being made to move District 4 and DeKalb County forward. Being accessible to my constituents is critical to improving quality of life for DeKalb residence.”
